ADA WANTS BYRDS MILL

CITY ATTY. WEBB GOES BEFORE DISTRICT COURT TO PETITION FOR CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS.

Dr. McKanna, John Smith and Buck Wall seek to Retain Control of Water.

City Attorney James Webb, with an ant council, went to Coalgate where they will go before the district court, petitioning in behalf of the city of Ada for the appointment of a Board of Appraisers of the Byrd's Mill water supply lands primary to having instituted condemnation proceedings.

Dr. McKanna, John Smith, Buck Wall, et al. who appear to have acquired an interest in the Byrd's Mill lands and who have organized a company for the purpose of exploiting the water resources of that district, also went to Coalgate allegedly to oppose the petition of the city for the appointment of the appraisers so the land might be condemned for public utility purposes.

There has not been heard as to the action of the district court relative to the city's contention.

MISS GEORGIA COOK OF STONEWALL ILL AT SHERMAN

Victim of Hiccoughs—Peculiar Allment Second Attack—Medicine Gives no Relief.

Sherman, Tex., May 12.—Miss Georgia Cook, a young lady twenty-five years of age, lies in her room at the Wheat House in this city in a critical condition from a peculiar ailment. She, in company with her sister, Miss Florence Cook, arrived in Sherman Monday afternoon from Texarkana on their way to their home at Stonewall, Okla. They concluded to spend a day or two in Sherman and remained over. Tuesday afternoon Miss Georgia took the hiccoughs, which, from a seemingly small start grew in intensity and finally became alarming. A physician was sent for and the ordinary remedies failed to give relief. Other physicians were called, but so far all remedies have proved unavailing. Miss Cook does not seem to suffer any great pain, but of course does not sleep and is almost exhausted by nervousness caused from the constant hiccoughs.

Her sister stated that this is the second attack of the ailment, a former attack lasting three weeks and refusing to be relieved by medicine. However, she adds that the present attack is much more severe than the first. The unfortunate young lady can be heard through the walls and closed doors. Her relatives at Stonewall have been notified of her condition.

GOV. HASKELL TO VISIT ADA

ARRANGEMENTS HAD BEEN MADE TO HAVE HIM HERE NEXT FRIDAY.

Finally Concluded He Should Be Sought to Come Later When There Could Be Had Record Breaking Attendance.

Thursday the 12th inst. the following telegram was received.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 1p.—Otis Weaver, Ada, Okla.: If the organization wants it advertise democratic rally at Ada for Friday. Governor Haskell can be present and make speech in forenoon. Wire me tomorrow at Muskogee. Fred P. Branson.

As soon as this message was received, I called on County Democratic Chairman Byron Norrell and other accessible, active democrats for directions as to response. I found that while all were anxious to have Governor Haskell visit Ada at his earliest pleasure and committee's convenience, it was regretted that the closeness of the time of the proposal of his coming, which would preclude much advertisement, and the fact of the late county democratic rally, might result in reduced attendance. But it was agreed that the committee's supposed itinerary for the governor through this section of the state should not be attempted and that the honor of his presence should not be delayed.

However, when I called Chairman Branson up and explained as suggested above, he replied at once, that it would suit the committee and the governor as well, if not better, in all particulars for him to come to Ada later. Therefore the matter was closed that way. Governor Haskell will come later, when there will be assured a reception and audience commensurate with the state's executive's dignity and his marked intelligence.

EIGHT PERISH IN MILL POND

School Boys and Girls Drown—All Bodies Recovered.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 12.—Eight high school students, six girls and two boys, lost their lives today while boating on the Paper Mill dam at Huntington Mills, about twenty miles below this city.

Twelve students of the Huntington High school secured two boats at the noon hour and started for row. The dam is nearly half a mile in width and when the two crafts had reached the center of the body of water it was noticed one of them had sprung a leak. The two boats then were pulled together by the young men in the party and an effort made to transfer the girls from the leaky boat to the safer craft. The last one of the party had scarcely set foot in the boat when it began to sink, owing to the weight.

The girls were helpless and the boys, with the exception of Dodson being expert swimmers, struck out for shore, which they reached in safety.

Minnich had no sooner gained the bank than he noticed the girls hanging to the rapidly sinking boat.

He dashed into the water and swam swiftly to the water-filled craft. Two girls were clinging to the boat, the others having gone down. Seizing Miss Davenport, Minnich again started for the shore, but the exertion was too much for the lad and the two went down together when they were within a stone's throw of the bank.

As soon as the accident became known, grappling parties began a search for the bodies. In less than two hours all the bodies were recovered.

APACHES PLANNING

BIG HOP AT FT. SILL

Lawton, Ok., May 13.—For several days the Apache Indians on Fort Sill military reservation have been planning to give a dance at Hiles Hole to celebrate the return to health of Nomatinsoltas, wife of an Apache chieftain, who has been for weeks in the hospital at Fort Sill suffering from an attack of typhoid fever. A few days ago she returned to the tribal quarters. A number of beebes will be killed for the occasion. The Comanches were invited and are arriving to take part.

The Apache Indian dances held on the Fort Sill reservation are the most weird and fascinating of the Indian dances of today.

ROFF EAGLE ON HONORABLE
TOM D. McKEOWN

Tom D. McKeown of Ada, has entered the race for District Judge subject to the action of the democratic primary on the 2nd day of August. There will be two judges to elect in the seventh judicial district, which is composed of Seminole, Pontotoc, Johnson, Coal and Atoka counties. Tom D. McKeown was born and grew to manhood in the State of South Carolina and came to the then

Indian Territory by the way of Arkansas ten years ago and settled at Ada, where he has been engaged in the practice of his profession. His first political activity was in behalf of the great reform movement initiated by the farmers alliance led by Ben Tillman in his native state.

After coming to the Chickasaw Nation he was active in behalf of the democratic party and was instrumental in keeping the fires of democracy burning throughout the days when there was no hope of reward.
"Tom," as he is familiarly known
by his friends, is a self-made man
and secured his legal education with funds he saved from his salary as a teacher in the public schools of his native state, and this no doubt accounts for his warm sympathy for the teachers and his advocacy of more and better schools.

"Low taxation and economical expenditure of public fund" is his slogan and is in keeping with his record upon this public question.
His career at the bar has won for him the respect of the courts and the members of the legal profession and as an evidence of his standing he was elected by his associate members of the State Bar Commission as Chairman of the Commission for the admission of lawyers to the bar
of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma.

The people of Pontotoc county are giving him their solid support and it is noticeable that those who know best are his most ardent supporters.

PAULS VALLEY POSTMASTER SEEKING RE-APPOINTMENT

Backed by 95 Per Cent of the Town and Cecil A. Lyon of Texas.

Washington, May 13.—Postmaster
J. M. Dorchester of Pauls Valley, Ok., is in Washington seeking reappointment. He has been postmaster at Pauls Valley for twelve years and before going to that place he served a term as postmaster at Lebanon, Ok. Mr. Dorchester will call on President Taft tomorrow relative to his reappointment. He claims the backing of 95 per cent of the patrons of his office and thinks that if merit counts he should be reappointed.

Marion Henderson, republican county chairman of Garvin county, Ok., is entered in the race against Dorchester and has the backing of the state and county organization.

Mr. Dorchester is a native of Texas, his father having served as postmaster of Sherman, under the Grant and Hayes administrations. His political backer is Republican National Committeeman Cecil A. Lyon of Texas, and Senators Gore, Owen and Representative Ferris of Oklahoma.

SPENDS $10,000 A YEAR FOR PHOTOGRAPHS

What It Costs Society Women to Be
Rich and Popular.

New York, May 12.—Much has been written about the amount of money women spend on dress. Figures have been given as to the cost Parisian gown, hat creations, jewels and other articles, but no one has estimated
graphs.

It must be remembered that the wearers of these gowns, hats and jewels must be photographed, and Fifth Avenue photographers make small fortunes every year from this business.

Mrs. George J. Gould's bill for photographs last year was between $9,- 000 and $10,000. If you don't believe it visit her photographer. Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay is said to have spent $10,000. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt does not visit the photographer so often, and her bill is not so large.

The courtesies of society, however,
are so many that these women seldom refuse a request for a photograph and consequently they place orders almost weekly with their photographers for new pictures. Mrs.
Gould has posed for many pictures with her children, and the picture of Marjorie Gould at her wedding cost more than $1,000. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont spends a great deal of money in supplying requests for her pictures.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS MEET AT MUSKOGEE

Muskogee, Ok., May 13.—The United
Spanish War Veterans of Oklahoma
will meet here in annual State encampment May 23-24. Delegates will be present from El Reno, Enid, Guthrie, Oklahoma City, Chandler,
Chickasha, Vinita and Watonga. The feature of the meeting promises to be the contest for department commander. There are already three candidates—R. B. Butts of Muskogee,
John Meyer of Oklahoma City and William Simms of Vinita. The encampment will send a large delegation to the National encampment next September and try to land the next National encampment at Oklahoma City.

the Muskogee Times-Democrat hits the nail on the head and drives it home:

"The last legislature made provision for the initiation of a constitutional amendment providing for the elimination of the illiterate negro as a voter.

"It is not at all probable that republicans will become active in getting the necessary petitioners to initiate this proposed amendment. They need those illiterate negro votes.
Therefore it is up to the democrats of the state who want this to be a white man's country to get the names to the petitions.

"And it must be done now.

"The petition to initiate the amendment must be filed not later than
May 22.

"Eastern Oklahoma, and Muskogee county in particular, is interested in this matter. Thousands of negroes are coming to Oklahoma from Southern states because just such a law
as this has been made effective there. Oklahoma has got to protect herself. Unless she wants the illiterate negroes of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia dumped into this state, here to become voters, elect officers and make laws for intelligent white men to live under, then this state has got to pass the same kind of a law that other Southern states have. Pass the negroes on to Kansas.

"On the West side of the state, except in a few counties, there are not enough negroes to make the matter an issue. So we need not expect much assistance from that side of the state. It is the Eastern counties, where there is already a heavy and
constantly increasing negro population, that should take hold of this matter and get the requisite number
of petitioners to initiate the amendment.

"If you have not signed the petition to initiate, do it now, or better still, get a blank petition from your county chairman and get twenty signatures to it and forward it immediately to Fred P. Branson, at democratic headquarters, Oklahoma City.

"It is important to remember that this proposed amendment, if it carries, will in no wise effect Indians."

Flee From Awful Forest Fires and Submerge Themselves in Water.

Duluth, May 12.—Bareheaded, with clothing scorched and their hair and eyebrows singed, a party of refugees arrived in Grand Marais today, after having spent the night in the bed of a stream to escape the forest fires. At times they were compelled to submerge themselves in the water.

The fire burned about $40,000 worth of timber, posts and ties, also the landings and the buildings located a mile west of Grand Marais. A big

Seminole County Wicked.

Wewoka, Okla., May 12.—Eight murder cases are set for trial before the district court which opened here Wednesday. There have been thirty-five killings in Seminole county since statehood and ten of these were committed since February 8 of this year.

GOES TO HIS REWARD. DR. R. D.
PRACTICED MEDICINE FOR OVER
FIFTY YEARS. ONE OF THE
FIRST CITIZENS OF McKENZIE.
HE LEAVES MANY FRIENDS
WHO SORROW AT HIS DEATH.

The obituary of R. D. Gwin, father of prominent fellow townsman, Edw.
Gwin, clipped from the McKenzie
Banner, was secured with some effort from an Ada friend, who had received a copy of the paper containing same, and is hereunder reproduced in replica, as is, also, the head lines above introducing obituary article.

Dr. Robert D. Gwin was born near Huntington, Tenn., Oct. 5, 1829, and died at his home four miles south of McKenzie, Friday, April 29, 1910.

For over fifty years Dr. Gwin practiced medicine in this county and there is scarcely a home for miles around but what he had visited as a physician and administered to those who were sick.

So great was the confidence of many in this venerable physician that often times he was called into a home
to see a special friend and patient,
and left without administering a dose of medicine, yet his visit was worth more than perhaps all the medicine
he could have prescribed.

He was universally respected by all; his courtly bearing and treatment of even the most humble, brought forth words of praise and attachments of true friendship.

Dr. Gwin was a learned gentleman,
not only in the science of medicine,
but in literature and on general questions of the day he was always found to be well versed.

We are not prepared to speak of his service in the army not having
the proper data, but next week we will have an article from the pen of an old friend and comrade to treat of his war record.

fever seige of '78-'79, is too well known to our citizens to need comment. He stayed with his people in the dark days and administered to patients where others would not.

Dr. Gwin was a charter member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this place in 1867. There is only one of the eighteen charter members now living, Capt. S. A. McBane, who lives in Texas.

He was a true christian soldier of the cross, one who loved his God and mankind. He never spoke ill of any person, only words of praise came from his lips. Many are the families who have heard his words of sympathy as he stood by the bedside of their loved one who had crossed the bar.

He was a truly sympathetic nature that went out to every one in sor-

It touches us deeply to have to chronicle his death. It seems as if a member of our family has gone. So closely has he been to us and our loved ones, so tenderly did he watch at our cradle-side when the tiny spark of life was almost gone; night after night without any rest or thought of his own comfort he watched for the change which he feared would be against us.

In the presence of friends to the number that filled the Cumberland
afternoon Rev. P. F. Johnson, assisted by Rev. J. M. Pickens, held the funeral service, and in beautiful Mt.
Olivet cemetery his mortal body lies
while his immortal spirit is at rest
in its mansion beyond the skies.

When we looked for the last time upon his face which seemed so peaceful and happy looking, we could only think of the very appropriate words used as a text by Rev. Johnson, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept
the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness
which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto all them also
that love His appearing."

A wife and three children survive to whom we extend our sympathy in their dark hour of bereavement.

RUNAWAY GIRL STRANDED.

Gets Police Chief to Wire Wealthy
Father for Ticket Back Home.

Springfield, Mo., May 10.—Pretty
16-year-old Ruby Randles ran away from the home of her parents at Shawnee, Ok., and according to her own statement reached Springfield last Thursday, discouraged and without funds to return to her Oklahoma home.

She asked Chief of Police Hunter
this morning to telegraph her father, J. K. Randles, a wealthy Shawnee real estate dealer, that she was ill and wanted to return home. The message was sent and the contrite wanderer is anxiously awaiting an answer in the form of a ticket to

and am stouter than I have ever been,"
writes Mrs. Kate Waters, of Lenoir, N. C., "although I have just finished a two weeks' wash. I lay my strength to Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken a lot of it and I can never praise it enough for what it has done for me. I can never thank you enough for the ad-

You are urged to take Cardui, that gen-

LY ASSAULTED COAL-

WAS A BALL PLAYER

Draws Pistol, Chokes and Drags Victim to the Ground.

Coalgate, Okla., May 13.—Lizzie Schlicker, a 21-year-old girl, was criminally assaulted here Friday night and a posse of 100 men is seeking Arthur McKinley, said to be an ex-member of the St. Louis Browns.
It is feared if he is found a lynching will result.

Lizzie Schlicker and Ada Billow
were walking on the street together, when McKinley, driving up in his
buggy, asked them to go for a drive.
The two girls consented, and got into the vehicle with him. He then drove to his room, and got out to get his coat. It is believed that at the same time he put a revolver in his pocket.

As the three were about to drive off, Robert Turley appeared and asked Miss Billow to get out and walk with him. The girl complied with his request, and Miss Schlicker was going to get out, too, but McKinley would not let her.

They drove past the hotel about one mile into the woods, where Mc-Kinley stopped and ordered the girl to get out, according to her story. She says she refused and he pointed his pistol at her without effect. Then, she declares, he seized her by the throat, choked her unconscious and dragged her to the ground.

He placed the girl back in the buggy, is the general belief, drove
with her to her home, and left her
on the sidewalk, still unconscious.
She was found there later by a passerby.

A posse was formed, and about 100 men have traced McKinley as far as Tupelo. Swift vengeance is the dominating idea of those pursuing.

McKinley claims to have played baseball with the St. Louis Browns

Miss Billow lives at Lehigh, Okla.

MISS MATHEWS RECITAL

The entertainment at the Normal building on last evening by Miss Mathews, assisted by Misses Case, Lucas, Steed was well attended. In fact, there was a full house and ever number on the program was thoroughly enjoyed. Lovers of classic music can not help giving favorable comment on the piano solos by Miss Mathews and the songs by Miss Case. The two songs by the German class showed a marked advancement by the students as well as much musical talent.

The two extras on the program, a song by Miss Helen Redman and the readings by Miss Baker, respectively, were duly appreciated by the audience, which gave them a good share of the applause.

WILLARD SCHOOL PICNIC PARTY

Yesterday with Mrs. Winn and Mrs. Mathews as chaperones, Prof. McCurry took his room of twenty-seven students on a picnicing excursion to the Rock Crossing on Sunday. Here in the inviting shades of the forest swings were put up to the great delight of the youngsters. Yes, there was some fishing and games, too. And, my, what a good dinner. After the luncheon was served Prof. McCurry gave the boys and girls a really big treat in the way of apples and candy.

While the students were taking on new life in the fresh air and sunshine, they were not unmindful of their school; and they made the welkin ring with enthusiastic yells for Ada's schools in general and the Willard school in particular. While the young people were thus enjoying themselves, the ladies were finding diversion in the game of 42. Among them we would not fail to mention Mrs. McCurry, who aside from taking care of the professor, found time to participate in the general merriment.

At 5:30 p. m. the picknicks turned slowly homeward, feeling thankful for the good time they had enjoyed and thinking the day had passed all too soon.

IMPROPER SUGGESTION STORY TO GAMBLING

There was reference in Friday's News to the arrest of some men in coon town for gambling, wherein by intimation, in indirect manner, those arrested were suggested as being crooks. It was improper to make the suggestion of "crooks" for though they were found guilty of loitering that fact didn't legally or necessarily morally constitute them as being "crooks," therefore the News without suggestion from the possibly aggrieved parties are representatives, voluntarily apologizes for any reference in anyway to "crooks" in the News relation of the arrests for gambling.

Guilty of Loitering.

The six men arrested by the city officers night before last in coon town or the "flats" were brought before Judge Powers yesterday afternoon and answered to a charge of loitering. One was convicted, two entered a plea of guilty and three were dismissed.

The fines amounted to $30.75.

Bill Introduced in Legislature to Prevent Over Charges in New Orleans.

Baton Rouge, La., May 12—Changes in the price of food will not affect New Orleans at frequent intervals if a bill introduced by Senator Elder in the Louisiana Senate passes. It requires all restaurants and hotels in cities exceeding 100,000 in population to file with the Mayor on the first day of each year a list of prices covering all dishes served. These prices can not be changed at any period during that year.

As New Orleans is the only city in the state with a population exceeding 100,000, no other city in Louisiana would enjoy the benefits of such a law.

The measure is generally believed to have been brought about by an investigation following the carnival of last February, when it was found that some restaurants charged double and treble the usual rates.

83 PER CENT OF OKLAHOMA WOMEN WOULD VOTE

Oklahoma City, Ok., May 13.—A straw vote taken by an Oklahoma City newspaper shows that 83 per cent of the women of Oklahoma are in favor of woman suffrage.

The largest per centage of women voting in the affirmative live in Oklahoma City, where headquarters of the Suffrage League are maintained.

ADA WANTS BYRDS MILL

City Attorney James Webb, with ant council, went to Coalgate where they will go before the district court petitioning in behalf of the city of Ada for the appointment of a Board of Appraisers of the Byrds Mill water supply lands primary to having instituted condemnation proceedings.

Dr. McKanna, John Smith, Buck Wall, et al., who appear to have acquired an interest in the Byrds Mill lands and who have organized a company for the purpose of exploiting the water resources of that district also went to Coalgate allegedly to oppose the petition of the city for the appointment of the appraisers so the land might be condemned for public utility purposes.

There has not been heard as to the action of the district court relative to the city's contention.

MISS GEORGIA COOK OF STONEWALL ILL AT SHERMAN

Sherman, Tex. May 12—Miss Georgia Cook a young lady twenty-five years of age lies in her room at the Wheat House in this city in a critical condition from a peculiar ailment. She is in company with her sister, Miss Florence Cook arrived in Sherman Monday afternoon from Texarkana on their way to their home at Stonewall, Okla. They concluded to spend a day or two in Sherman and remained over Tuesday afternoon. Miss Georgia took the hiccoughs which from a seemingly small start grew in intensity and finally became alarming. A physician was sent for and the ordinary remedies failed to give relief. Other physicians were called but so far all remedies have proved unavailing. Miss Cook does not seem to suffer any great pain, but of course does not sleep and is almost exhausted by nervousness caused from the constant hiccoughs.

Her sister stated that this is the second attack of the ailment, a former attack lasting three weeks and refusing to be relieved by medicine. However she adds that the present attack is much more severe than the first. The unfortunate young lady can be heard through the walls and closed doors. Her relatives at Stonewall have been notified of her condition.

Finally Concluded He Should Be Sought to Come Later When There Could Be Had Record Breaking Attendance.

Thursday the 12th inst the following telegram was received Oklahoma City, Okla., May 12—Olas Weaver, Ada, Okla. If the organization wants it advertise democratic rally at Ada for Friday Governor Haskell can be present and make speech in forenoon. Wire me tomorrow at Muskogee Fred P. Branson. As soon as this message was received, I called on County Democratic Chairman Byron Norrell and other accessible, active democrats for directions as to response. I found that while all were anxious to have Governor Haskell visit Ada at his earliest pleasure and committee's convenience, it was regretted that the closeness of the time of the proposal of his coming which would preclude much advertisement and the fact of the late county democratic rally might result in reduced attendance. But it was agreed that the governor through this section of the state should not be attempted and that the honor of his presence should not be delayed.

However, when I called Chairman Branson up and explained as suggested above he replied at once that it would suit the committee and the governor as well if not better in all particulars for him to come to Ada later. Therefore the matter was closed that way Governor Haskell will come later when there will be assured a reception and audience commensurate with the state's executive's dignity and his marked intelligence.

EIGHT PERISH IN MILL POND

Wilkesbarre Pa. May 12—Eight high school students six girls and two boys lost their lives today while boating on the Paper Mill dam at Huntington Mills about twenty miles below this city.

Twelve students of the Huntington High school secured two boats at the noon hour and started for row. The dam is nearly half a mile in width and when the two crafts had reached the center of the body of water it was noticed one of them had sprung a leak. The two boats then were pulled together by the young men in the party and an effort made to transfer the girls from the leaky boat to the safer craft. The last one of the party had scarcely set foot in the boat when it began to sink owing to the weight. The girls were helpless and the boys, with the exception of Dodson being expert swimmers struck out for shore, which they reached in safety.

He dashed into the water and swam swiftly to the water-filled craft. Two girls were clinging to the boat, the others having gone down. Seizing Miss Davenport Minnich again started for the shore but the exertion was too much for the lad and the two went down together when they were within a stone's throw of the bank.

BOFF EAGLE ON HONORABLE
TOM D. McKEOWN

Tom D. McKeown of Ada, has entered the race for District Judge
subject to the action of the democratic primary on the 2nd day of August. There will be two judges to elect in the seventh judicial district,
which is composed of Seminole, Pontotoc, Johnson, Coal and Atoka counties. Tom D. McKeown was born and
grew to manhood in the State of South Carolina and came to the then

Indian Territory by the way of Oklahoma ten years ago and settled at
the practice of his profession. His first political activity was in behalf of the great reform movement initiated by the farmers alliance led by Ben Tillman in his native state.
After coming to the Chickasaw Nation he was active in behalf of the democratic party and was instrumental in keeping the fires of democracy burning throughout the days
when there was no hope of reward.
"Tom," as he is familiarly known
by his friends, is a self-made man
and secured his legal education with
his native state, and this no doubt
the teachers and his advocacy of
more and better schools.

"Low taxation and economical expenditure of public fund" is his slogan and is in keeping with his record upon this public question.

His career at the bar has won for
members of the legal profession and
was elected by his associate members of the State Bar Commission
as Chairman of the Commission for
the admission of lawyers to the bar
of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma.

giving him their solid support and
it is noticeable that those who know
best are his most ardent supporters.

Rich and Popular.

New York, May 12.—Much has been written about the amount of money
been given as to the cost of Parisian gown, hat creations, jewels and other
graphs.

It must be remembered that the
wearers of these gowns, hats and
jewels must be photographed, and Fifth Avenue photographers make
small fortunes every year from this business.

Mrs. George J. Gould's bill for photographs last year was between $9,- 000 and $10,000. If you don't believe it visit her photographer. Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay is said to have spent $10,000. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt does not visit the photographer
large.

The courtesies of society, however,
graph and consequently they place
orders almost weekly with their photographers for new pictures. Mrs.
with her children, and the picture of Marjorie Gould at her wedding cost more than $1,000. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont spends a great deal of money in supplying requests for her pictures.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS MEET AT MUSKOGEE

Muskogee, Ok., May 13.—The United Spanish War Veterans of Oklahoma will meet here in annual State encampment May 23-24. Delegates will be present from El Reno, Enid, Guthrie, Oklahoma City, Chandler,
feature of the meeting promises to
be the contest for department commander. There are already three can-
John Meyer of Oklahoma City and
William Simms of Vinita. The encampment will send a large delegation to the National encampment next September and try to land the next National encampment at Oklahoma City.

the Muskogee Times-Democrat hits
the nail on the head and drives it
home:

"The last legislature made provision for the initiation of a constitutional amendment providing for the elimination of the illiterate negro as
a voter.

publicans will become active in getting the necessary petitioners to in-
need those illiterate negro votes.
Therefore it is up to the democrats
of the state who want this to be a white man's country to get the names
to the petitions.

"And it must be done now.
"The petition to initiate the amendment must be filed not later than
May 22.

"Eastern Oklahoma, and Muskogee county in particular, is interested in this matter. Thousands of negroes
are coming to Oklahoma from South-
as this has been made effective
herself. Unless she wants the illiterate negroes of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia dumped into this
officers and make laws for intelligent
white men to live under, then this
of a law that other Southern states have. Pass the negroes on to Kansas.

"On the West side of the state, except in a few counties, there are not
much assistance from that side of the state. It is the Eastern counties,
where there is already a heavy and
constantly increasing negro population, that should take hold of this
ment.

"If you have not signed the petition to initiate, do it now, or better still, get a blank petition from your
county chairman and get twenty signatures to it and forward it immediately to Fred P. Branson, at democratic headquarters, Oklahoma City.

"It is important to remember that
this proposed amendment, if it car-

Submerge Themselves in Water.

Duluth, May 12.—Bareheaded, with
clothing scorched and their hair and
arrived in Grand Marais today, after
a stream to escape the forest fires. At times they were compelled to sub-
merge themselves in the water.

The fire burned about $40,000 worth
of timber, posts and ties, also the landings and the buildings located
a mile west of Grand Marais. A big

fore the district court which opened here Wednesday. There have been thirty-five killings in Seminole county since statehood and ten of these were committed since February 8 of this year.

GOES TO HIS REWARD. DR. R. D.
GWIN DIES AT A RIFE AGE. HAD PRACTICED MEDICINE FOR OVER
FIFTY YEARS. ONE OF THE
WHO SORROW AT HIS DEATH.

The obituary of R. D. Gwin, father
of prominent fellow townsman, Edw.
Gwin, clipped from the McKenzie
Banner, was secured with some effort from an Ada friend, who had
received a copy of the paper containing same, and is hereunder re-
head lines above introducing obituary
article.

Dr. Robert D. Gwin was born near Huntington, Tenn., Oct. 5, 1829, and
died at his home four miles south of McKenzie, Friday, April 29, 1910.

For over fifty years Dr. Gwin practiced medicine in this county and there is scarcely a home for miles around but what he had visited as a
who were sick.

So great was the confidence of
many in this venerable physician that
often times he was called into a home
to see a special friend and patient,
and left without administering a dose
of medicine, yet his visit was worth
more than perhaps all the medicine
he could have prescribed.

He was universally respected by all; his courtesy bearing and treatment of even the most humble,
brought forth words of praise and attachments of true friendship.

Dr. Gwin was a learned gentleman,
not only in the science of medicine,
but in literature and on general ques-
to be well versed.

his service in the army not having
an old friend and comrade to treat of
his war record.

fever seige of '73-'79, is too well known to our citizens to need comment. He stayed with his people in the dark days and administered to
patients where others would not.

Dr. Gwin was a charter member of
of this place in 1867. There is only one of the eighteen charter members now living, Capt. S. A. McBaue, who lives in Texas.

the cross, one who loved his God and
mankind. He never spoke ill of any person, only words of praise came
from his lips. Many are the families who have heard his words of sympathy as he stood by the bedside of
bar.

He was a truly sympathetic nature

It touches us deeply to have to chronicle his death. It seems as if
a member of our family has gone. So closely has he been to us and our
loved ones, so tenderly did he watch
at our cradle-side when the tiny
spark of life was almost gone; night
after night without any rest or
thought of his own comfort he watched for the change which he feared
would be against us.

afternoon Rev. P. F. Johnson, assisted by Rev. J. M. Pickens, held the funeral service, and in beautiful Mt.
Olivet cemetery his mortal body lies
while his immortal spirit is at rest
in its mansion beyond the skies.

When we looked for the last time
upon his face which seemed so
peaceful and happy looking, we could
only think of the very appropriate
son, "I have fought a good fight, I
have finished my course, I have kept
up for me a crown of righteousness
which the Lord the righteous judge
shall give me at that day, and not
that love His appearing."

A wife and three children survive
to whom we extend our sympathy in their dark hour of bereavement.

RUNAWAY GIRL STRANDED.

Gets Police Chief to Wire Wealthy

Springfield, Mo., May 10.—Pretty
16-year-old Ruby Randles ran away
from the home of her parents at Shawnee, Ok., and according to her
last Thursday, discouraged and without funds to return to her Oklahoma home.

She asked Chief of Police Hunter
this morning to telegraph her father,
J. K. Randles, a wealthy Shawnee real estate dealer, that she was ill and wanted to return home. The
message was sent and the contrite
wanderer is anxiously awaiting an
Shawnee.

Lenoir, N. C.—"I am not tired at all,
and am stouter than I have ever been,"

weeks' wash. I lay my strength to Cardul, the woman's tonic. I have taken a lot of it and I can never praise it

Schlicker, a 21-year-old girl, was assaulted here Friday night and a posse of 100 men is seeking Arthur McKinley, said to be an ex-member of the St. Louis Browns.
It is feared if he is found a lynching will result.

Lizzie Schlicker and Ada Billow
were walking on the street together,
when McKinley, driving up in his
buggy, asked them to go for a drive.
The two girls consented, and got in-
to the vehicle with him. He then
his coat. It is believed that at the same time he put a revolver in his pocket.

As the three were about to drive off, Robert Turley appeared and asked Miss Billow to get out and walk with him. The girl complied with
would not let her.

They drove past the hotel about
one mile into the woods, where Mc-Kinley stopped and ordered the
story. She says she refused and he pointed his pistol at her without effect. Then, she declares, he seized
her by the throat, choked her unconscious and dragged her to the ground.

He placed the girl back in the
with her to her home, and left her
on the sidewalk, still unconscious.
She was found there later by a
passerby.

A posse was formed, and about 100
men have traced McKinley as far as Tupelo, Swift vengeance is the dominating idea of those pursuing.
McKinley claims to have played baseball with the St. Louis Browns

Miss Billow lives at Lehigh, Okla.

Yesterday with Mrs. Winn and Mrs. Mathews as chaperones, Prof. McCurry took his room of twenty-seven students on a picnicing excursion to the Rock Crossing on Sunday. Here in the inviting shades of the forest swings were put up to the great delight of the youngsters. Yes, there was some fishing and games, too. And, my, what a good dinner. After the luncheon was served Prof. McCurry gave the boys and girls a really big treat in the way of apples and candy.
While the students were taking on new life in the fresh air and sunshine, they were not unmindful of their school; and they made the welkin ring with enthusiastic yells for Ada's schools in general and the Willard school in particular. While the young people were thus enjoying themselves, the ladies were finding diversion in the game of 42. Among them we would not fail to mention Mrs. McCurry, who aside from taking care of the professor, found time to participate in the general merriment.
At 5:30 p. m. the picknicks turned slowly homeward, feeling thankful for the good time they had enjoyed and thinking the day had passed all too soon.

IMPROPER SUGGESTION STORY TO GAMBLING

There was reference in Friday's News to the arrest of some men in coon town for gambling, wherein by intimation, in indirect manner, those arrested were suggested as being crooks. It was improper to make the suggestion of "crooks" for though they were found guilty of loitering that fact didn't legally or necessarily morally constitute them as being "crooks," therefore the News without suggestion from the possibly aggrieved parties are representatives, voluntarily apologize for any reference in anyway to "crooks" in the News relation of the arrests for gambling.

Guilty of Loitering.

The six men arrested by the city officers night before last in coon town or the "flats" were brought before Judge Powers yesterday afternoon and answered to a charge of loitering. One was convicted, two entered a plea of guilty and three were dismissed.
The fines amounted to $30.75.

Bill Introduced in Legislature to Prevent Over Charges in New Orleans.
Baton Rouge, La., May 12—Changes in the price of food will not affect New Orleans at frequent intervals if a bill introduced by Senator Elder in the Louisiana Senate passes. It requires all restaurants and hotels in cities exceeding 100,000 in population to file with the Mayor on the first day of each year a list of prices covering all dishes served. These prices can not be changed at any period during that year.
As New Orleans is the only city in the state with a population exceeding 100,000, no other city in Louisiana would enjoy the benefits of such a law.
The measure is generally believed to have been brought about by an investigation following the carnival of last February, when it was found that some restaurants charged double and treble the usual rates.

83 PER CENT OF OKLAHOMA WOMEN WOULD VOTE

Oklahoma City, Ok., May 13.—A straw vote taken by an Oklahoma City newspaper shows that 83 per cent of the women of Oklahoma are in favor of woman suffrage.
The largest per centage of women voting in the affirmative live in Oklahoma City, where headquarters of the Suffrage League are maintained.

Ada Social Events

A pretty birthday party was given by Mrs. I. Harris at her home on 13th and Broadway Friday afternoon to Miss Henrietta Levy, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Levy, the day being her 11th birthday.
Mrs. Harris had beautiful decorations in the dining room where lunch was spread for the guests: Misses Korinne Katz, Pauline Jones, Gussie Levin, Nathan Levin, Miriam Levine, Lenore McKendree, Esther Tobias, and Mrs. Harris' three children, Julian, Leonard and Adrain.
The little favors presented were red and yellow balls, silver candy and blowers.

Tuesday evening a jolly crowd of boys and girls responded to an invitation to meet at the home of Mrs. J. W. Sweatt, who entertained in honor of Miss Lucile Hall, who is a very popular guest of friends in the city. After the game of 42, the twenty guests were served to ice cream and cake.

The Silver Thimble Club of Sunrise and Capital Hill spent a very pleasant afternoon Tuesday with Mrs. C. C. Nash. The ladies were refreshed from their needlework when the hostess served delightful cream with pineapple. The next coming together will be with Mrs. Mannville.

The 42 Club spent a very happy evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Beck Friday. The special guests who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Beck were Dr. and Mrs. Ligon, Mr. and Mrs. Kice, Mr. and Mrs. Tobin, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Billa, Misses Fulton, Rubel, Torbett and Mrs. Beck's brother-in-law, Mr. Morrison.

About 50 ladies called during the hours of the Tea given the Christian Ladies Aid Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Ebey. The house was beautiful in its decoration of crimson rambles and other cut flowers. The hostesses were Mesdames Galbraith, Ebey, Allen, Sweatt, and Anderson. The society was pleased with the liberal free will offering from the guests.

REPUBLICAN STATE CHAIRMAN HAVING WAR AT HOME

Muskogee, Ok., May 13.—Republican State Chairman James Harris, who has always controlled his own county, is making a desperate political fight to retain his prestige at home. Harris incurred the enmity of half a dozen county officers, who had always been his supporters and is working against their renomination in the republican primary. The anti-Harris men are making a strong fight to retain their offices and wrest the political machinery of the county from Harris. They are out and out insurgents and declare they already have strength enough to secure the organization. The fight is being watched with interest in all parts of the state. District Clerk Snyder, Register of Deeds Will Rubie, Dr. Rubie, a wealthy physician; County Judge Drake and Assistant County Attorney Rittenhouse are making the fight to defeat the so-called Harris faction.

HYDE FAVORED BY JURY BALLOT

FEELS CONFIDENT

Laughingly Says, "I Will Eat Dinner With You Frances."

Kansas City, May 13.—The final vote of the jury, it is understood, was eleven to one for acquittal. When importuned to cast his deciding vote with the rest of the jurors, it is said the man who is holding out for a conviction, said he would think the matter over and give his decision in the morning.

Kansas City, May 13.—After the Hyde murder jury had balloted for one hour and forty minutes Friday night without reaching a verdict, the jurymen were sent to their hotel for the night. They will resume balloting at 9 o'clock Saturday.

More than a dozen personal friends of Dr. Hyde and his wife remained in the room with the couple. The scene more resembled a social gathering than the convening of intimates about a man upon whom a judgment that might mean destruction was being weighed.

Seated in the center of the little circle of people, the physician lighted a cigar, tilted back in his chair and began to tell stories. Soon the party was laughing and joking.

But the aged father of Dr. Hyde was not present. The long hours of the trial have exhausted him. When the last speech was finished, he went to his hotel and retired.

Growing weary after a more than four weeks imprisonment the balloting time was greeted with signs of relief by the jurymen. During the final hours of the closing addresses, which occupied the entire regular court sessions, for two days and entered into extra night sessions, the jurymen looked often at the clock and restlessly moved in their chairs.

When James A. Reed closed the state's final argument tonight and Judge Latshaw indicated the jury was free to begin voting on its verdict, the twelve men walked quickly from the court room. The court informed them it would wait until about midnight for a verdict. If none had been found at that time, said the court, they would be sent to their hotel to return tomorrow and continue their deliberations.

Even though Prosecutor Conkling today implored the jury to inflict the death penalty upon Dr. Hyde, the physician smiled as the arbiters of his fate redressed turning to his wife at his side, he said.

"I'll eat dinner at home with you, Frances."

On another side of the court room sat Mrs. Logan O. Swope. About her were all of her living children with the exception of Mrs. Hyde. The jury filed past her as it went to its room.

As soon as the room was cleared sufficiently, the Swope family went home.

Immediately after the jury had retired, the crowd was ordered from the court room, but the spectators who day by day have fought for places from which they might best hear the testimony, were unwilling to leave upon a mere request. They wanted to remain until a verdict was rendered, if one was brought in tonight but the court would not permit it. In fifteen minutes after the close of the arguments, the marshal and his assistants had cleared the room.

W. F. Jones, E. Eleventh St., Ada, Okla., says "It is over a year and a half since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and received a cure from a severe case of kidney complaint. There was a dull ache through my loins and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions caused me much annoyance. I tried a number of remedies, but received only temporary relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no occasion to take a kidney remedy since then, as the cure Doan's Kidney Pills effected has proven to be a permanent one."

They sat in front of the open fire. The only light in the room was that of the flames. It was just the right setting to invite confidence.

"Now tell me all about him," said the young married woman to the engaged girl, as she stirred the fire.

"Oh, he's perfectly lovely—" began the engaged girl.

"Of course," interrupted the young married woman. "He is so much like my Jack."

"Indeed!" The married woman stiffened perceptibly.

"I didn't mean it that way," protested the engaged girl. "They are both the very nicest men in the world—only different. We are to be married very soon and I wanted to ask you about the expenses of a flat."

"Yes, I can tell you all about it," said the mollified young married woman. "Jack says I am the best manager he ever saw—best at spending and best at saving. It sounds paradoxical, doesn't it? Now I am going to confide our secret to you, though Jack says, 'Let's not let the world know.' So you mustn't tell any one."

"You can rely on me," said the engaged girl. "That is, of course, I'll tell Harry."

"First, let me advise you to learn to manage your husband," counseled the young married woman, sagely. "This part, of course, you mustn't tell Harry. Let all important suggestions come from him. If you need a new hat tell him he looks so nice that you hope he won't be ashamed to go out with you in your old hat—that you just can't afford a new one—and see what will happen. Second, don't economize."

"But we'll have to," said the engaged girl. "We must be very careful the first year."

"Beware! That will be a precedent he'll always expect you to live up to. Don't do it. You can save money another way—our way. The usual trouble with a bride is that she makes the grocery bill so small at first her husband thinks it is economy to be married and so he allows himself more cigars than ever."

"As for clothes! Women make over their trousseaus until a man thinks dresses and hats grow on trees. No, my dear, that isn't the way. It is much easier to get money when you are first married than it will be later. I know mamma always had to wait until winter for her summer clothes and then it would be warm weather before she got her winter outfit."

"I can do my own sewing and I am learning to make bread—" "Stuff and nonsense! Not that I don't believe in learning to cook—Jack encouraged my going to a domestic science school as soon as we began to keep house. Mamma's experience was so different. They didn't have the domestic science schools in her day and she said she cried every meal the first year she was married. Papa's mother was a splendid cook and for a long time mamma just couldn't get the knack. But, as I was telling you, learned to make rarebits, salad dressing and wine sauces first. Of course, Jack asked why they didn't teach us to make bread and to roast meat, but what is the use of learning to make those common things when one can always buy them? At first I did try, but soon I just took to buying everything except my souffles—" "But the expense?" "Jack doesn't mind if they do cost a trifle more. He says he thanks his stars there are plenty of delicatessen stores. Anyway we are saving so much money that the extra cost of food doesn't worry us."

"When the bills began to come in thick and fast he laughed—that is, at first, then he scolded and I—cried. That made him feel so like a brute that he said I could charge anything I wanted to, though goodness knows how he could pay the bills. Then I told him I was saving his money—" "I don't think Harry would want me to charge things," said the engaged girl, doubtfully.

"When I explained it to Jack he thought me a perfect wonder. 'Give me the cash for the groceries,' said he, 'and I'll give you a nice new bank check for the amount and you may keep it as long as you want to—the longer the better.'"

"I told him I would keep all the checks he gave me until we had been married 25 years. He was so pleased! Now he writes me extra big checks every month and takes the cash to pay the bills. I keep the checks safely."

"So we have everything we want and save a lot, too. It isn't necessary to economize—that is, if Harry is as generous with his bank checks as Jack is."

What Worried Him. "You look worried, Biffkins." "I am." "Somebody ill at home?" "No." "Business isn't what it should be, eh?" "That ain't it." "Well, then, what worries you?" "I was just wondering how it's going to be possible to heat them aeroplanes in the winter."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

MANY KINDS OF PANCAKES

Adapted for Breakfast, Luncheon, Supper, or Any Possible Variety of Meal.

Pancakes—Three cupfuls of buttermilk, one scant teaspoonful of soda, one-half teaspoonful of salt, two cupfuls of flour, one of corn meal.

Graham Griddle Cakes—Warm one pint of milk and one pint of water, put half of the mixture in stone jar, add five teaspoonfuls of graham flour and two cupfuls of wheat flour, one sugar-spoonful of brown sugar, beat until smooth, add rest of milk and water, lastly one cup of yeast. In the morning take out one cupful of batter before adding one-half teaspoonful of salt and one spoonful of soda dissolved in a little water. Every night mix two-thirds graham and one-third wheat, according to the amount desired; add milk once in a while when it can be spared—it helps to brown them nicely. Cheaper and healthier than buckwheat.

Best Pancakes—While doing up the evening work put the required amount of sour (thick) milk into a mixing bowl. Beat in flour enough to make a thick batter. Beat in salt, cover, and set aside. In the morning dissolve soda in cold water. Beat into batter thoroughly. Beat the required number of eggs for amount of batter. Fold lightly into batter. This will hasten the breakfast getting and you will have pancakes fit for a king.

Cornmeal Cakes—Sift together one and one-half large cups cornmeal, one heaping teaspoon baking powder, teaspoonful salt, tablespoon sugar. Rub in one teaspoon lard and add enough water to make thin batter. Then add one or two eggs. Beat well and fry on hot griddle. This makes enough for two and they are certainly fine.

POULTRY HANDLED PROPERLY

Some Simple Precautions That It Is Always Well to Observe in the Kitchen.

The skin of poultry is frequently very dirty when brought from market, and fowls should be not only washed, but scrubbed with a soft brush and warm water in which a teaspoonful of baking soda has been dissolved. Such treatment will prevent the disagreeable "henry" taste often noticeable in cooked poultry.

Poultry should be drawn immediately, and unless it is known to have been killed very recently it should be thoroughly washed on the inside and used soon. Poultry that is drawn directly after killing, on the contrary, keeps better if it is not washed until used. It should be hung in a cold place or put in the ice box with a piece of charcoal inside the body.

Cold storage chickens should under no circumstances remain in a warm room before cooking. Such poultry must be kept at a low temperature and cooked as soon as possible. All cold storage food when brought into a warm temperature spoils quickly, and without doubt many cases of illness traced to the use of such food are really due to careless handling and delay in cooking.

Baked North Pole.

Bake a sponge cake in an oblong pan, and when it is cool split it into two sheets with a sharp knife. Have a square of cylinder-shaped brick of ice cream, around which the sheets of cake are wrapped. The cake should project for an inch or so. Cover the cake with a thick meringue and pack the ends of the brick with it. Then put in a hot oven for a minute, or until the meringue is just tinged with golden brown. Brown on a board covered with white paper, and when browned slip on to a platter and serve.

Graham Griddle Cakes—Warm one pint of milk and one pint of water, put half of the mixture in stone jar, add five teaspoonfuls of graham flour and two cupfuls of wheat flour, one sugar-spoonful of brown sugar, beat until smooth, add rest of milk and water, lastly one cup of yeast. In the morning take out one cupful of batter before adding one-half teaspoonful of salt and one spoonful of soda dissolved in a little water. Every night mix two-thirds graham and one-third wheat, according to the amount desired; add milk once in a while when it can be spared—it helps to brown them nicely. Cheaper and healthier than buckwheat.

Best Pancakes—While doing up the evening work put the required amount of sour (thick) milk into a mixing bowl. Beat in flour enough to make a thick batter. Beat in salt, cover, and set aside. In the morning dissolve soda in cold water. Beat into batter thoroughly. Beat the required number of eggs for amount of batter. Fold lightly into batter. This will hasten the breakfast getting and you will have pancakes fit for a king.

Cornmeal Cakes—Sift together one and one-half large cups cornmeal, one heaping teaspoon baking powder, teaspoonful salt, tablespoon sugar. Rub in one teaspoon lard and add enough water to make thin batter. Then add one or two eggs. Beat well and fry on hot griddle. This makes enough for two and they are certainly fine.

POULTRY HANDLED PROPERLY

The skin of poultry is frequently very dirty when brought from market, and fowls should be not only washed, but scrubbed with a soft brush and warm water in which a teaspoonful of baking soda has been dissolved. Such treatment will prevent the disagreeable "henry" taste often noticeable in cooked poultry.

ADA WANTS BYRDS MILL

CITY ATTY. WEBB GOES BEFORE DISTRICT COURT TO PETITION FOR CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS.

City Attorney James Webb, with ant council, went to Coalgate where they will go before the district court petitioning in behalf of the city of Ada for the appointment of a Board of Appraisers of the Byrds Mill water supply lands primary to having instituted condemnation proceedings.

Dr. McKanna, John Smith, Buck Wall, et al, who appear to have acquired an interest in the Byrds Mill lands and who have organized a company for the purpose of exploiting the water resources of that district also went to Coalgate allegedly to oppose the petition of the city for the appointment of the appraisers so the land might be condemned for public utility purposes. There has not been heard as to the action of the district court relative to the city's contention.

MISS GEORGIA COOK OF STONEWALL ILL AT SHERMAN

Victim of Hiccoughs—Peculiar Allment Second Attack—Medicine Gives no Relief.

Sherman, Tex. May 12—Miss Georgia Cook a young lady twenty-five years of age lies in her room at the Wheat House in this city in a critical condition from a peculiar ailment. She is in company with her sister, Miss Florence Cook arrived in Sherman Monday afternoon from Texarkana on their way to their home at Stonewall, Okla. They concluded to spend a day or two in Sherman and remained over Tuesday afternoon. Miss Georgia took the hiccoughs which from a seemingly small start grew in intensity and finally became alarming. A physician was sent for and the ordinary remedies failed to give relief. Other physicians were called but so far all remedies have proved unavailing. Miss Cook does not seem to suffer any great pain, but of course does not sleep and is almost exhausted by nervousness caused from the constant hiccoughs.

Her sister stated that this is the second attack of the ailment, a former attack lasting three weeks and refusing to be relieved by medicine. However she adds that the present attack is much more severe than the first. The unfortunate young lady can be heard through the walls and closed doors. Her relatives at Stonewall have been notified of her condition.

GOV. HASKELL TO VISIT ADA

Thursday the 12th inst the following telegram was received: Oklahoma City, Okla., May 12—Otis Weaver, Ada, Okla. If the organization wants it advertise democratic rally at Ada for Friday Governor Haskell can be present and make speech in forenoon. Wire me tomorrow at Muskogee Fred P. Branson.

As soon as this message was received, I called on County Democratic Chairman Byron Norrell and other accessible, active democrats for directions as to response. I found that while all were anxious to have Governor Haskell visit Ada at his earliest pleasure and committee convenience, it was regretted that the closeness of the time of the proposal of his coming which would preclude much advertisement and the fact of the late county democratic rally might result in reduced attendance. But it was agreed that the committee's supposed itinerary for the governor through this section of the state should not be attempted and that the honor of his presence should not be delayed.

However, when I called Chairman Branson up and explained as suggested above he replied at once that it would suit the committee and the governor as well if not better in all particulars for him to come to Ada later. Therefore the matter was closed that way. Governor Haskell will come later when there will be assured a reception and audience commensurate with the state's executive's dignity and his marked intelligence.

EIGHT PERISH IN MILL POND

Wilkesbarre Pa. May 12—Eight high school students six girls and two boys lost their lives today while boating on the Paper Mill dam at Huntington Mills about twenty miles below this city.

Twelve students of the Huntington High school secured two boats at the noon hour and started for row. The dam is nearly half a mile in width and when the two crafts had reached the center of the body of water it was noticed one of them had sprung a leak. The two boats then were pulled together by the young men in the party and an effort made to transfer the girls from the leaky boat to the safer craft. The last one of the party had scarcely set foot in the boat when it began to sink owing to the weight.

He dashed into the water and swam swiftly to the water-filled craft. Two girls were clinging to the boat, the others having gone down. Seizing Miss Davenport Minnich again started for the shore but the exertion was too much for the lad and the two went down together when they were within a stone's throw of the bank.

As soon as the accident became known grappling parties began a search for the bodies. In less than two hours all the bodies were recovered.

A few days ago she returned to the tribal quarters. A number of beavers will be killed for the occasion.

The Comanches were invited and are arriving to take part.

BOFF EAGLE ON HONORABLE
TOM D. McKEOWN

Tom D. McKeown of Ada, has entered the race for District Judge
subject to the action of the democratic primary on the 2nd day of August. There will be two judges to elect in the seventh judicial district,
which is composed of Seminole, Pontotoc, Johnson, Coal and Atoka counties. Tom D. McKeown was born and grew to manhood in the State of South Carolina and came to the then

Indian Territory by the way of Arkansas ten years ago and settled at Ada, where he has been engaged in
the practice of his profession. His first political activity was in behalf of the great reform movement initiated by the farmers alliance led by Ben Tillman in his native state.

After coming to the Chickasaw Nation he was active in behalf of the democratic party and was instrumental in keeping the fires of democracy burning throughout the days
when there was no hope of reward.
"Tom," as he is familiarly known
by his friends, is a self-made man
and secured his legal education with
funds he saved from his salary as
his native state, and this no doubt
accounts for his warm sympathy for
the teachers and his advocacy of
more and better schools.

"Low taxation and economical expenditure of public fund" is his slogan and is in keeping with his record upon this public question.

His career at the bar has won for
him the respect of the courts and the members of the legal profession and
as an evidence of his standing he
was elected by his associate members of the State Bar Commission
as Chairman of the Commission for
the admission of lawyers to the bar
of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma.

The people of Pontotoc county are
giving him their solid support and
it is noticeable that those who know
best are his most ardent supporters.

PAULS VALLEY POSTMASTER SEEKING RE-APPOINTMENT

Backed by 95 Per Cent of the Town

Washington, May 13.—Postmaster
J. M. Dorchester of Pauls Valley, Ok., is in Washington seeking reappointment. He has been postmaster at Pauls Valley for twelve years and before going to that place he served a term as postmaster at Lebanon, Ok. Mr. Dorchester will call on President Taft tomorrow relative to
his reappointment. He claims the backing of 95 per cent of the patrons of his office and thinks that if merit counts he should be reappointed.

Marion Henderson, republican county chairman of Garvin county, Ok.,
is entered in the race against Dorchester and has the backing of the state and county organization.

Mr. Dorchester is a native of Texas, his father having served as postmaster of Sherman, under the Grant
and Hayes administrations. His political backer is Republican National Committeeman Cecil A. Lyon of Texas, and Senators Gore, Owen and Representative Ferris of Oklahoma.

Rich and Popular.

New York, May 12.—Much has been written about the amount of money
gown, hat creations, jewels and other
graphs.

It must be remembered that the
wearers of these gowns, hats and
jewels must be photographed; and Fifth Avenue photographers make
small fortunes every year from this business.

Mrs. George J. Gould's bill for photographs last year was between $9-000 and $10,000. If you don't believe it visit her photographer. Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay is said to have spent $10,000. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt does not visit the photographer so often, and her bill is not so large.

The courtesies of society, however,
graph and consequently they place
orders almost weekly with their photographers for new pictures. Mrs.
with her children, and the picture of Marjorie Gould at her wedding cost
more than $1,000. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont spends a great deal of money in supplying requests for her pictures.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS MEET AT MUSKOGEE

Muskogee, Ok., May 13.—The United
Spanish War Veterans of Oklahoma
will meet here in annual State encampment May 23-24. Delegates will be present from El Reno, Enid, Guthrie, Oklahoma City, Chandler,
be the contest for department commander. There are already three can-
William Simms of Vinita. The encampment will send a large delegation to the National encampment next September and try to land the next
National encampment at Oklahoma
City.

the Muskogee Times-Democrat hits
the nail on the head and drives it
home:

"The last legislature made provision for the initiation of a constitutional amendment providing for the elimination of the illiterate negro as
a voter.

"It is not at all probable that republicans will become active in getting the necessary petitioners to initiate this proposed amendment. They need those illiterate negro votes.
Therefore it is up to the democrats
of the state who want this to be a white man's country to get the names
to the petitions.

"And it must be done now.

"The petition to initiate the amendment must be filed not later than
May 22.

"Eastern Oklahoma, and Muskogee county in particular, is interested in this matter. Thousands of negroes
are coming to Oklahoma from Southern states because just such a law
as this has been made effective
there. Oklahoma has got to protect herself. Unless she wants the illiterate negroes of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia dumped into this
state, here to become voters, elect
officers and make laws for intelligent
white men to live under, then this
of a law that other Southern states have. Pass the negroes on to Kansas.

"On the West side of the state, except in a few counties, there are not enough negroes to make the matter
an issue. So we need not expect
much assistance from that side of the state. It is the Eastern counties,
where there is already a heavy and
constantly increasing negro population, that should take hold of this
ment.

"If you have not signed the petition to initiate, do it now, or better still, get a blank petition from your
county chairman and get twenty signatures to it and forward it immediately to Fred P. Branson, at democratic headquarters, Oklahoma City.

"It is important to remember that
this proposed amendment, if it carries, will in no wise effect Indians."

Submerge Themselves in Water.

Duluth, May 12.—Bareheaded, with
clothing scorched and their hair and
eyebrows singed, a party of refugees
arrived in Grand Marais today, after having spent the night in the bed of
a stream to escape the forest fires. At times they were compelled to sub-
merge themselves in the water.

The fire burned about $40,000 worth
of timber, posts and ties, also the landings and the buildings located
a mile west of Grand Marais. A big

GOES TO HIS REWARD. DR. R. D.
FIFTY YEARS. ONE OF THE
WHO SORROW AT HIS DEATH.

The obituary of R. D. Gwin, father
of prominent fellow townsman, Edw.
Gwin, clipped from the McKenzie
Banner, was secured with some effort from an Ada friend, who had
received a copy of the paper containing same, and is hereunder reproduced in replica, as is, also, the
head lines above introducing obituary
article.

Dr. Robert D. Gwin was born near Huntington, Tenn., Oct. 5, 1829, and
died at his home four miles south of McKenzie, Friday, April 29, 1910.

For over fifty years Dr. Gwin practiced medicine in this county and there is scarcely a home for miles around but what he had visited as a physician and administered to those who were sick.

So great was the confidence of
many in this venerable physician that
often times he was called into a home
to see a special friend and patient,
and left without administering a dose
of medicine, yet his visit was worth more than perhaps all the medicine
he could have prescribed.

He was universally respected by
all; his courtly bearing and treatment of even the most humble,
brought forth words of praise and attachments of true friendship.

Dr. Gwin was a learned gentleman,
not only in the science of medicine,
but in literature and on general questions of the day he was always found
to be well versed.

We are not prepared to speak of
his service in the army not having
the proper data, but next week we will have an article from the pen of
an old friend and comrade to treat of
his war record.

His brave fight during the yellow fever seige of '73-'79, is too well known to our citizens to need comment. He stayed with his people in the dark days and administered to patients where others would not.

Dr. Gwin was a charter member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church
of this place in 1867. There is only one of the eighteen charter members now living, Capt. S. A. McEane, who lives in Texas.

He was a true christian soldier of the cross, one who loved his God and
mankind. He never spoke ill of any person, only words of praise came
from his lips. Many are the families who have heard his words of sympathy as he stood by the bedside of
bar.

He was a truly sympathetic nature
row.

It touches us deeply to have to chronicle his death. It seems as if
a member of our family has gone. So closely has he been to us and our
loved ones, so tenderly did he watch
at our cradle-side when the tiny
spark of life was almost gone; night
after night without any rest or
thought of his own comfort he watched for the change which he feared
would be against us.

In the presence of friends to the number that filled the Cumberland
afternoon Rev. P. F. Johnson, assisted by Rev. J. M. Pickens, held the funeral service, and in beautiful Mt.
Olivet cemetery his mortal body lies
while his immortal spirit is at rest
in its mansion beyond the skies.

When we looked for the last time
upon his face which seemed so
peaceful and happy looking, we could
only think of the very appropriate
words used as a text by Rev. Johnson, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept
the faith; henceforth there is laid
up for me a crown of righteousness
which the Lord the righteous judge
shall give me at that day, and not
to me only, but unto all them also
that love His appearing."

A wife and three children survive
to whom we extend our sympathy in their dark hour of bereavement.

RUNAWAY GIRL STRANDED.

Gets Police Chief to Wire Wealthy

Springfield, Mo., May 10.—Pretty
16-year-old Ruby Randles ran away from the home of her parents at Shawnee, Ok., and according to her
own statement reached Springfield
last Thursday, discouraged and without funds to return to her Oklahoma home.

She asked Chief of Police Hunter
this morning to telegraph her father,
J. K. Randles, a wealthy Shawnee real estate dealer, that she was ill and wanted to return home. The message was sent and the contrite
wanderer is anxiously awaiting an

Draws Pistol, Chokes and Drags Vic-

Coalgate, Okla., May 13.—Lizzie Schlicker, a 21-year-old girl, was originally assaulted here Friday night and a posse of 100 men is seeking Arthur McKinley, said to be an ex-member of the St. Louis Browns.
It is feared if he is found a lynching
will result.

Lizzie Schlicker and Ada Billow
were walking on the street together,
when McKinley, driving up in his
buggy, asked them to go for a drive.
The two girls consented, and got in-
to the vehicle with him. He then drove to his room, and got out to get
his coat. It is believed that at the same time he put a revolver in his pocket.

As the three were about to drive
off, Robert Turley appeared and asked Miss Billow to get out and walk
with him. The girl complied with his request, and Miss Schlicker was going to get out, too, but McKinley
would not let her.

They drove past the hotel about
one mile into the woods, where Mc-Kinley stopped and ordered the
girl to get out, according to her story. She says she refused and he pointed his pistol at her without effect. Then, she declares, he seized
her by the throat, choked her unconscious and dragged her to the ground.

He placed the girl back in the
with her to her home, and left her
on the sidewalk, still unconscious.
She was found there later by a passerby.

A posse was formed, and about 100
men have traced McKinley as far as Tupelo, Miss. Swift vengeance is the dominating idea of those pursuing.
McKinley claims to have played baseball with the St. Louis Browns

Miss Billow lives at Lehigh, Okla.

MISS MATHEWS RECITAL

The entertainment at the Normal building on last evening by Miss Mathews, assisted by Misses Case, Lucas, Steed was well attended. In fact, there was a full house and ever number on the program was thoroughly enjoyed. Lovers of classic music can not help giving favorable comment on the piano solos by Miss Mathews and the songs by Miss Case. The two songs by the German class showed a marked advancement by the students as well as much musical talent.

The two extras on the program, a song by Miss Helen Redman and the readings by Miss Baker, respectively, were duly appreciated by the audience, which gave them a good share of the applause.

WILLARD SCHOOL PICNIC PARTY

Yesterday with Mrs. Winn and Mrs. Mathews as chaperones, Prof. McCurry took his room of twenty-seven students on a picnicing excursion to the Rock Crossing on Sunday. Here in the inviting shades of the forest swings were put up to the great delight of the youngsters. Yes, there was some fishing and games, too. And, my, what a good dinner. After the luncheon was served Prof. McCurry gave the boys and girls a really big treat in the way of apples and candy.

While the students were taking on new life in the fresh air and sunshine, they were not unmindful of their school; and they made the welkin ring with enthusiastic yells for Ada's schools in general and the Willard school in particular. While the young people were thus enjoying themselves, the ladies were finding diversion in the game of 42. Among them we would not fail to mention Mrs. McCurry, who aside from taking care of the professor, found time to participate in the general merriment.

At 5:30 p. m. the picknicks turned slowly homeward, feeling thankful for the good time they had enjoyed and thinking the day had passed all too soon.

IMPROPER SUGGESTION STORY TO GAMBLING

There was reference in Friday's News to the arrest of some men in coon town for gambling, wherein by intimation, in indirect manner, those arrested were suggested as being crooks. It was improper to make the suggestion of "crooks" for though they were found guilty of loitering that fact didn't legally or necessarily morally constitute them as being "crooks," therefore the News without suggestion from the possibly aggrieved parties are representatives, voluntarily apologizes for any reference in anyway to "crooks" in the News relation of the arrests for gambling.

Guilt of Loitering.

The six men arrested by the city officers night before last in coon town or the "Bats" were brought before Judge Powers yesterday afternoon and answered to a charge of loitering. One was convicted, two entered a plea of guilty and three were dismissed.

The fines amounted to $30.75.

Baton Rouge, La., May 12—Changes in the price of food will not affect New Orleans at frequent intervals if a bill introduced by Senator Elder in the Louisiana Senate passes. It requires all restaurants and hotels in cities exceeding 100,000 in population to file with the Mayor on the first day of each year a list of prices covering all dishes served. These prices can not be changed at any period during that year.

As New Orleans is the only city in the state with a population exceeding 100,000, no other city in Louisiana would enjoy the benefits of such a law.

The measure is generally believed to have been brought about by an investigation following the carnival of last February, when it was found that some restaurants charged double and treble the usual rates.

REPUBLICAN STATE CHAIRMAN HAVING WAR AT HOME

Muskogee, Ok., May 13.—Republican State Chairman James Harris, who has always controlled his own county, is making a desperate political fight to retain his prestige at home. Harris incurred the enmity of half a dozen county officers, who had always been his supporters and is working against their renomination in the republican primary. The anti-Harris men are making a strong fight to retain their offices and wrest the political machinery of the county from Harris. They are out and out insurgents and declare they already have strength enough to secure the organization. The fight is being watched with interest in all parts of the state. District Clerk Snyder, Register of Deeds Will Ruble, Dr. Ruble, a wealthy physician; County Judge Drake and Assistant County Attorney Rittenhouse are making the fight to defeat the so-called Harris faction.

HYDE EMERGED BY JURY BALLOT

Laughingly Says, "I Will Eat Dinner With You Frances."

Kansas City, May 13.—The final vote of the jury, it is understood, was given to one for acquittal and one for conviction. When importuned to cast his deciding vote with the rest of the jurors, it is said the man who is holding out for a conviction, said he would think the matter over and give his decision in the morning.

Kansas City, May 13.—After the Hyde murder jury had balloted for one hour and forty minutes Friday night without reaching a verdict, the jurors were sent to their hotel for the night. They will resume balloting at 9 o'clock Saturday.

More than a dozen personal friends of Dr. Hyde and his wife remained in the room with the couple. The scene more resembled a social gathering than the convening of intimates about a man upon whom a judgment that might mean destruction was being weighed.

Seated in the center of the little circle of people, the physician lighted a cigar, tilted back in his chair and began to tell stories. Soon the party was laughing and joking. But the aged father of Dr. Hyde was not present. The long hours of the trial have exhausted him. When the last speech was finished, he went to his hotel and retired.

Growing weary after a more than four weeks imprisonment the balloting time was greeted with signs of relief by the jurors. During the final hours of the closing addresses, which occupied the entire regular court sessions, for two days and entered into extra night sessions, the jurors looked often at the clock and restlessly moved in their chairs.

When James A. Reed closed the state's final argument tonight and Judge Latshaw indicated the jury was free to begin voting on its verdict, the twelve men walked quickly from the court room. The court informed them it would wait until about midnight for a verdict. If none had been found at that time, the court, they would be sent to their hotel to return tomorrow and continue their deliberations.

Even though Prosecutor Conkling today implored the jury to inflict the death penalty upon Dr. Hyde, the physician smiled at the arbiters of his fate, retired turning to his wife at his side, he said.

"I'll eat dinner at home with you, Frances."

Off on another side of the court room sat Mrs. Logan O. Swope. About her were all of her living children with the exception of Mrs. Hyde. The jury filed past her as it went to its room.

As soon as the room was cleared sufficiently, the Swope family went home.

Immediately after the jury had retired, the crowd was ordered from the court room, but the spectators who day by day have fought for places from which they might best hear the testimony, were unwilling to leave upon a mere request. They wanted to remain until a verdict was rendered, if one was brought in tonight but the court would not permit it. In fifteen minutes after the close of the arguments, the marshal and his assistants had cleared the room.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Ada People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words, but deeds that prove true merit. The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills. For kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Ada people who have been cured to stay.

W. F. Jones, E. Eleventh St., Ada, Okla., says: "It is over a year and a half since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and received a cure from a severe case of kidney complaint. There was a dull ache through my loins and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions caused me much annoyance. I tried a number of remedies, but received only temporary relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no occasion to take a kidney remedy since then, as the cure Doan's Kidney Pills effected has proven to be a permanent one."

Cause of Eczema Explained.
After years of debate medical authorities are now agreed that Eczema and other skin diseases are not seated in the blood, but are caused by myriads of microscopic animals gnawing the flesh just below the epidermis. The patient is perfectly healthy. It is only the skin that is diseased.

Hence, scientists are now agreed that you must cure the skin through the skin. The medicine must be in liquid form in order to penetrate properly. And we can save with confidence that we have the true remedy for Eczema in our store.

The instant you wash with this soothing liquid you will find the itch relieved. We positively assure you of this. Will you try a bottle (at only 25c) on our recommendation? Ask for D. D. D. Prescription. Ramsey Drug Company, West Main Street.

MANY KINDS OF PANCAKES

Pancakes—Three cupsful of buttermilk, one scant teaspoonful of soda, one-half teaspoonful of salt, two cupsful of flour, one of corn meal.

Graham Griddle Cakes—Warm one pint of milk and one pint of water, put half of the mixture in stone jar, add five teaspoonfuls of graham flour and two cupsful of wheat flour, one sugar-spoonful of brown sugar, beat until smooth, add rest of milk and water, lastly one cup of yeast. In the morning take out one cupful of batter before adding one-half teaspoonful of salt and one spoonful of soda dissolved in a little water. Every night mix two-thirds graham and one-third flour, according to the amount desired; add milk once in a while when it can be spared—it helps to brown them nicely. Cheaper and healthier than buckwheat.

Best Pancakes—While doing up the evening work put the required amount of sour (thick) milk into a mixing bowl. Beat in flour enough to make a thick batter. Beat in salt, cover, and set aside. In the morning dissolve soda in cold water. Beat into batter thoroughly. Beat the required number of eggs for amount of batter. Fold lightly into batter. This will hasten the breakfast getting and you will have pancakes fit for a king.

Cornmeal Cakes—Sift together one and one-half large cups cornmeal, one heaping teaspoon baking powder, teaspoonful salt, tablespoon sugar. Rub in one teaspoon lard and add enough water to make thin batter. Then add one or two eggs. Beat well and fry on hot griddle. This makes enough for two and they are certainly fine.

POULTRY HANDLED PROPERLY

The skin of poultry is frequently very dirty when brought from market, and fowls should be not only washed, but scrubbed with a soft brush and warm water in which a teaspoonful of baking soda has been dissolved. Such treatment will prevent the disagreeable "henry" taste often noticeable in cooked poultry.

Poultry should be drawn immediately, and unless it is known to have been killed very recently it should be thoroughly washed on the inside and used soon. Poultry that is drawn directly after killing, on the contrary, keeps better if it is not washed until used. It should be hung in a cold place or put in the ice box with a piece of charcoal inside the body.

Cold storage chickens should under no circumstances remain in a warm room before cooking. Such poultry must be kept at a low temperature and cooked as soon as possible. All cold storage food when brought into a warm temperature spoils quickly, and without doubt many cases of illness traced to the use of such food are really due to careless handling and delay in cooking.

Baked North Pole.
Bake a sponge cake in an oblong pan, and when it is cool split it into two sheets with a sharp knife. Have a square of cylinder-shaped brick of ice cream, around which the sheets of cake are wrapped. The cake should project for an inch or so. Cover the cake with a thick meringue and pack the ends of the brick with it. Then put in a hot oven for a minute, or until the meringue is just tinged with golden brown. Brown on a board covered with white paper, and when browned slip on to a platter and serve.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide. Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

They sat in front of the open fire. The only light in the room was that of the flames. It was just the right setting to invite confidence.

"Now tell me all about him," said the young married woman to the engaged girl, as she stirred the fire. "Oh, he's perfectly lovely," began the engaged girl.

"Of course," interrupted the young married woman. "He is so much like my Jack."

"Oh, he isn't a bit like Jack."

"Indeed!" The married woman stiffened perceptibly.

"I didn't mean it that way," protested the engaged girl. "They are both the very nicest men in the world—only different. We are to be married very soon and I wanted to ask you about the expenses of a flat."

"Yes, I can tell you all about it," said the mollified young married woman. "Jack says I am the best manager he ever saw—best at spending and best at saving. It sounds paradoxical, doesn't it? Now I am going to confide our secret to you, though Jack says, 'Let's not let the world know.' So you mustn't tell any one."

"First, let me advise you to learn to manage your husband," counseled the young married woman, sagely. "This part, of course, you mustn't tell Harry. Let all important suggestions come from him. If you need a new hat tell him he looks so nice that you hope he won't be ashamed to go out with you in your old hat—that you just can't afford a new one—and see what will happen. Second, don't economize."

"Beware!" That will be a precedent he'll always expect you to live up to. Don't do it. You can save money another way—our way. The usual trouble with a bride is that she makes the grocery bill so small at first her husband thinks it is economy to be married and so he allows himself more cigars than ever.

"As for clothes!" Women make over their trousseaus until a man thinks dresses and hats grow on trees. No, my dear, that isn't the way. It is much easier to get money when you are first married than it will be later. I know mamma always had to wait until winter for her summer clothes and then it would be warm weather before she got her winter outfit."

"I can do my own sewing and I am learning to make bread."

"Stuff and nonsense!" Not that I don't believe in learning to cook—Jack encouraged my going to a domestic science school as soon as we began to keep house. Mamma's experience was so different. They didn't have the domestic science schools in her day and she said she cried every meal the first year she was married. Papa's mother was a splendid cook and for a long time mamma just couldn't get the knack. But, as I was telling you, learned to make rarebits, salad dressing and wine sauces first. Of course, Jack asked why they didn't teach us to make bread and to roast meat, but what is the use of learning to make those common things when one can always buy them? At first I did try, but soon I just took to buying everything except my soufles."

"But the expense?" "Jack doesn't mind if they do cost a trifle more. He says he thanks his stars there are plenty of delicatessen stores. Anyway we are saving so much money that the extra cost of food doesn't worry us."

"Jack is so good about giving me all he earns—every cent. I save it all and buy what I want on credit. Jack didn't know at first that I had the money put away in an old trunk."

"When the bills began to come in thick and fast he laughed—that is, at first, then he scolded and I—cried. That made him feel so like a brute that he said I could charge anything I wanted to, though goodness knows how he could pay the bills. Then I told him I was saving his money."

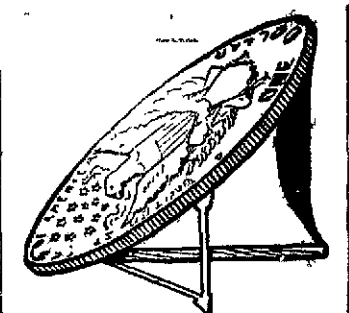

"I don't think Harry would want me to charge things," said the engaged girl, doubtfully.

"When I explained it to Jack he thought me a perfect wonder. 'Give me the cash for the groceries,' said he, 'and I'll give you a nice new bank check for the amount and you may keep it as long as you want to—the longer the better.'"

"I told him I would keep all the checks he gave me until we had been married 25 years. He was so pleased! Now he writes me extra big checks every month and takes the cash to pay the bills. I keep the checks safely."

"So we have everything we want and save a lot, too. It isn't necessary to economize—that is, if Harry is half as generous with his bank checks as Jack is."

What Worried Him.
"You look worried, Biffkins." "I am." "Somebody ill at home?" "No." "Business isn't what it should be, eh?" "That ain't it." "Well, then, what worries you?" "I was just wondering how it's going to be possible to heat them aeroplanes in the winter."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

BANKERS SEE SALOME DANCE

Police Appear on Scene—Those Who Did Not Get Away Deposit Five Dollars Each.

El Paso, Tex., May 12.—El Paso's police register is full today of John Does and Richard Roes and the police chief holds several dozen five dollar bills deposited as appearance bonds by men whose names, if they were not screened under fictitious registration, would be recognized as prominent in financial circles of the state and nation.

Last night the Texas Bankers' association, in convention here, held a banquet and a Salome dance was one of the features. During its progress the police chief and five men with a patrol wagon appeared and all who did not get out rode to the police station and deposited five dollars each.

Today it is declared the entire matter was a joke perpetrated by the local bankers. It is announced that all those "arrested" may have their money back by calling at the police station but fifty Texas bankers will go home five dollars short and their $250 will go to charity.
